MANGER

Mary gave birth to her son,
She laid him in a manger,
God in history born in time,
To give rebirth to the poor.

The Angel said to shepherds,
To find a child lying in a manger,
God himself shall provide,
To feed our spiritual hunger.

The shepherds went with haste,
They found him in the manger,
God in him as the true riches,
To free us from all our fears.

Jesus was born and lived poor,
This child lying in a manger,
God with his riches became poor,
To give us God and no other.

Fr. Francis Galvan, OSA

A savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord.

To follow Jesus means both to rejoice in his coming at his Nativity, as we celebrate tonight, and to continue to wait in joy and hope for the coming fullness of his reign. In the midst of familiar rituals surrounding this holy day, the words of the angel still stand out: the God of all Creation cares enough for me, to come to earth for me? Indeed, a Savior has been born for us. God has come to dwell with us. He has saved us; he is Christ and Lord. Faith Catholic.
